

Toby Roslyn Weissmann

Ypnu Tpd;um Erodd,smm

Twenty Years of Knowing Cousin Martin "David" Felsenfeld*

On Sunday, August 11, 1963 Milton took my mother to see my father who had a goiter operation. When he came back from Manhattan to Rockaway I met his family. Martin said his name was 77 because of all the buses he saw on 77th Street.. On Sunday June 19, 1966 we went to Alan's engagement wedding at The Auu

On Sunday June 19, 1966 we went to Alan's wedding engagement at the Austoria Manor. Martin greeted everyone. On Wednesday, August 9, 1967 Milton and Martin came to see us at our bungalow in Rockaway.

My father wasn't home from work. Martin talked about Playland an amusement park on 98th Street. He ate noodles that my mother cooked.

On Wednesday, September 1, 1971 Milton, Bea, and him visited my father and me in our apartment in the Bronx. Martin recited numbers.

He had seven up.. We were here for vacation 3 weeks in August of 1975.

Martin was helpful. He and his father met us at the Los Angeles Airport Tuesday night September 16th, 1975. He was glad that we were moving to an aptment in La Habra. On Wednesday July 12, 1978 I came in the business room of North Orange County Regional Occupational Program in Anaheim. Martin greeted and kissed me.

He saw me their until we gfinished the program on Friday, June 8, 1979.

I had Thanksgiving dinner at their house on November 23, 1978. He was my guest at the Briaille Institute Youth Christmas Party on December 20, 1978. He invited me to a banquet at Sam's Seafood on Saturday, March 1 24, 1979. His father got a flat tire while driving us. We went to a Chinese restaurant in La Habra. I spent the night at their house. The next day we had his 19th birthday.

I invited him to a square dance on Saturday, May 19, 1979 at Buena Park. That was my 28th birthday. They had me Thanksgiving.. I invited him to Briaille's Christmas party on Saturday, December 15, 1979.

I invited him to a dance of Braille's on Saturday, March 22, 1980.

The next day was his 20th birthday. We went to the South Coast Plaza on January 19, and June 7, of 1980. Both times were Saturdays.

\ Monty really does not have a middle name!*

Toby Weissmann page 2

On Saturday, July 5, 1980 we went to Brea Mall. I spent the night at their house. The next day we went to Whitwood Mall. On Saturday, August 16, 1980 I invited him to the La Brea Senior Center. On Saturday, December 13, 1980 I invited him to Anaheim's Braille Christmas party. Blind people that he knew at La Brea High School in Anaheim from Taylor Bus were La Nona Kennedy, Sylvia Apodaca, and Kevin ~~He~~ <sup>He</sup> knew Kathy Martinez, and Dennis Cain who are blind from Cypress College. He told Debra ~~Marotom~~ <sup>Marotom</sup> mpt tp be stibbpm/ On Sunday March 23, 1981 I went to his 21st birthday. On Saturday April 18 and Sunday April 19th, 1981 we had Passover Seder at his house.

On Friday August 14, 1981 we went to the South Coast Plaza. On Saturday December 12, 1981 I invited him to Braille's Christmas party.

On Sunday, December 27, 1981 I was at the Chanukah party at their house. zpm Dsyufey, ~~zmsv~~ <sup>zmsv</sup> 27, snr Dufsy z, stvj 39. ~~1982~~ <sup>1981</sup> 20 was at their house for his 22nd birthday. On Saturday, April 24, 1982 his family helped me move to this apartment. On Friday May 28, he came to our dance at Santa Ana Senior Citizen Center. We were in Vermont August 19-25 1982. We spent August 18, and the 25th at his aunt and uncle's house. On November 25, 1982 I spent Thanksgiving at their house.

zpm Monday, December 24, 1982 I was at their house. The next day we went to a Los Angeles Newspaper Stand. On Sunday March 27, and Monday March 28, 1983 I was at their house for his 23rd birthday. We went to Whitwood Mall. We had a Passover Seder. On Monday July 4, 1983 I was a family picnic at Irvine Park. On July 30 and 31 1983 which was a weekend we were in Sacramento for the National Federation of the Blind's Victory. He calls me once a week. We wonder how much this story is worth. We both use buses. His family is wonderful.

I had Thanksgiving dinner at their house on November 23, 1982. He was my guest at the Braille Institute Youth Christmas Party on December 20, 1982. He invited me to a banquet at Sam's Seafood on Saturday, March 12, 1983. His father got a flat tire while driving us. We went to a Chinese restaurant in La Habra. I spent the night at their house. The next day we had his 19th birthday.

I invited him to a square dance on Saturday, May 19, 1983 at Buena Park. That was my 28th birthday. They had me Thanksgiving... I invited him to Braille's Christmas party on Saturday, December 12, 1981.

I invited him to a dance at Braille's on Saturday, March 22, 1980.

The next day was his 20th birthday. We went to the South Coast Plaza on January 19, and June 7, of 1980. Both times were Saturdays.